

psalm 43

The musical score consists of four vertical staves, each representing a different section of the psalm. The sections are labeled with numbers and corresponding words:

- Section 1: Zend (line 1), HEER' (line 2), Uw (line 3), licht (line 4), en (line 5), waar (line 6), heid (line 7), ne- (line 8), der, (line 9), En (line 10), breng (line 11), mij, (line 12).
- Section 6: door (line 1), dien (line 2), glans (line 3), ge- (line 4), leid, (line 5), Tot (line 6), Uw (line 7), ge- (line 8), wij- (line 9), de (line 10), ten- (line 11), te (line 12), we- (line 13).
- Section 11: der (line 1), Dan (line 2), klimt (line 3), mijn (line 4), ban- (line 5), ge (line 6), ziel (line 7), ge- (line 8), re- (line 9), der (line 10), te (line 11), v (line 12).
- Section 16: Ten (line 1), ber- (line 2), ge (line 3), van (line 4), Uw (line 5), hei- (line 6), lig- (line 7), heid, (line 8), Daar (line 9), mij (line 10), Uw (line 11), gunst (line 12), ver- (line 13), beidt. (line 14).

The music is written on a staff system with vertical stems and horizontal dashes. The stems indicate pitch, and the dashes indicate rhythm. The sections are separated by vertical bar lines, and the words from the Dutch translation are placed next to their respective staves.